

Bill's Bio

William J. (Bill) Ingersoll was raised in Huntington, West Virginia, and is a graduate of Marshall University in Huntington and Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, Virginia. He has served as Pastor or Head of Staff for 30 years in three Presbyterian congregations in Louisiana (six years), Arkansas (six years), and Texas (18 years). He and his wife, Roberta, also a Presbyterian minister, moved in 2009 to Grayslake, Illinois. Since then, Bill has served as an Interim Pastor in three communities in Wisconsin as well as Interim Pastor/Head of Staff at Wildwood Presbyterian Church in Grayslake and the Presbyterian Church of Western Springs, both in Illinois.

Bill and Roberta, who recently retired as an Associate Pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Libertyville, Illinois, have two adult children, Lori, and John. Lori and her husband, Bobby Zabor, have a three year old daughter, Hannah, and eight month old son, Austin. The Zabor family and John both live in the Houston, Texas, area.

Bill enjoys walking, especially in the Rollins Savanna Forest Preserve right behind his home, bird watching, and working crossword puzzles. He is a dog lover and regrets to inform those of you who are Cubs fans that he is a long-time avid St. Louis Cardinals baseball fan, with his Dad having served in the Navy with Cardinal great, Stan Musial.

