Pastor's Message

"The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

- Mark 1:15

Dear Friends,

Of all the seasons in the Christian Calendar Year, the Season of Lent is my favorite. Perhaps this is because it begins in winter but finishes in spring—like watching crocuses and daffodils appear or hearing the birdsong after long winter's silence.

Lent is a forty day journey of spiritual discipline reflecting Jesus' sojourn in the wilderness and his final journey to Jerusalem. It's a time to be mindful of who Christ is: for ourselves and for our world. For me, it's a time for intentional, daily prayer; for private time with my Bible; for long walks with Remy our Goldendoodle; and for thinking on things past and things yet to be. There is a holy intimacy on such a journey: a quickening of our inward life, like the greening of the world.

Most often during Lent, I make a solitary journey into the desert wilderness of Anza-Borrego State Park in California, where I am confronted with myself in a vast, unpopulated landscape of eloquent silence. This year, Lent has taken me to another destination: our old house in Naperville which we are preparing to sell after a generation of life there together. Going out to the Bagster or to Goodwill and thumbing through dusty boxes filled with old photos and other memorabilia has made for a different kind of journey: a revisitation of who I once was, even as I let go of that, readying heart, mind and will to take hold of what is, and what will carry our hope for the future. Isn't that what repentance really means?

Here at church, there are rich opportunities to make such journeys together. Pick up a copy of Magrey deVega's "Embracing the Uncertain" and listen to the sermon series each Sunday in Lent. Join others in worship and prayer each Wednesday morning at 7:00 AM; enjoy breakfast together, start your day in Christian community. Come to supper each Wednesday evening from 5:30 to 7:00 PM; stay for spiritual discussions using deVega's book as our guide. Commit to letting go of something you don't need this Lent—and taking firmer hold of something you do.

Maybe, like the humble crocus, we will find ourselves holding high our brave little blossoms, showing forth the colors of the Kingdom. Maybe, like the birds returning, the world will hear our "good news" singing, too.

With Lenten blessings,

Clinton

The Daybreakers...(something new in Men's Ministry at First Pres)

Thursdays, 6:00 AM, South Parlor

Borrowing from Louis L'Amour's epic Westerns, Daybreakers is a new opportunity for men at First Presbyterian Church. Starting Thursday, March 5 in the South Parlor, Pastor Clint will lead a men's Bible Study for discussion, fellowship and prayer each Thursday from 6:00 to 7:00 AM. Donuts and coffee will be provided! Very little preparation will be required other than reading the passage for the week and reflecting on a few questions sent out by Pastor Clint the day before.

The group is designed for both working and retired men who are seeking to ground their week with meaningful theological discussions, a growing familiarity with Scripture, non-judgmental fellowship and supportive prayer.

Faith Formation

Kindness in the Classroom

Kindness is a key ingredient that enhances positivity and helps children feel good about themselves. Children with a positive outlook have greater attention spans, more willingness to learn, and better creative thinking to improve results at school.

Why should we teach kindness in school?

Teachers have an awesome responsibility to mold the minds and hearts of our children. Cultivating kindness in the classroom improves school culture and supports learning, both academic and emotional. Teaching kindness in the classroom results in:

- More positive attitudes towards others and themselves
- More positive social behaviors and few behavioral problems
- Better academic performance

The best way to promote kindness and caring behaviors in our classrooms is to model them. When we show our students what it looks like and sounds like to be kind, there is a far greater chance they will repeat those modeled behaviors. And it is important to remember that children watch their teachers all the time and listen to everything we say. Essential caring behaviors and kindness are more often “caught” than they are “taught” in the classroom.

Remember, “A little spark of kindness can put a colossal burst of sunshine into someone’s day!” (author unknown). Here at First Presbyterian Preschool we have fun spreading kindness and joy everyday. Make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, brotherly kindness and kindness to brotherly love.

On Saturday, March 7 the Preschool will be hosting its Annual Art Fair that also sponsors the Ryan Nyland Toy Drive. The toy drive is for the children at Lurie Children’s Hospital. This is just one example of the way we show the children the value of giving back to those that are in need of a show of love and kindness. If you are interested in donating to this wonderful cause, details about the Ryan Nyland Toy Drive and donations are on preschool.firstchurchlf.org/toy-drive. Please drop off new toys at First Pres on Saturday, March 7, 10:00 – 11:30 AM.

Membership

Last month, we welcomed two new families into the First Pres community. Please say hello to the Andersons and Moorheads when you see them around!

Nancy Anderson

Nancy Anderson was received as a new member on February 2. She and Patrick celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Pastor Clint's first Sunday. They live in their starter house in Glenview and are "moving on up" in their camping experience from a tent to a pop-up with plans to visit many of the national parks out west. Nancy is an avid reader, especially historical and Christian fiction; she enjoys gardening, biking, hiking and nature in general. They enjoy classical music at CSO in winter, Ravinia and Millennium Park in summer. "The traditional worship service, uplifting music and a sense of family/community are important to us in our church plus having opportunities to serve." Welcome Nancy and Patrick!

Jamie, Mary Gould, Woods and Mary Bremer Moorhead

Jamie and Mary Gould Moorhead joined the congregation on February 2. They moved to Lake Forest four years ago with their two children, Woods and Mary Bremer. Mary Gould is a native of St. Simons, GA and Jamie grew up in Deerfield. They enjoy running, yoga, bike riding and skiing. Their kids are active in basketball, soccer, taekwondo, sailing and gymnastics. The family has loved the community and could see themselves in it. They find value in the Sunday services and love the feel of the church. Welcome Mary Gould, Jamie, Woods and Mary Bremer!

Polarization Recap

Being Good Neighbors in a Red and Blue Land

Fueled by 24-hour cable news and a growing national left-right rift, sociologists tell us that “polarization” has now graduated to “tribalism.” We often entrench ourselves in our own side of polarizing issues, resulting in widening partisan divide in our own communities, congregations, and homes. Rather than seeking relationships, many of us are not talking—or even listening—to each other.

However, through our scriptures and confessions, we know God calls us to a different way of life. Adult Faith Formation has been exploring how we, as a people of faith, can play a leading role in bringing people together in this era of increasing polarization, tribalism and contempt for the “other.” In short, we seek to have FPCLF to be part of the solution to this divisiveness. To that end, AFF has taken several steps:

1. AFF has written a “polarization” overture to the Chicago Presbytery for the 224th General Assembly, the national governing body for PCUSA. (Several other Presbyteries are cosponsoring the document that AFF developed.) The overture calls us to be part of the solution in halting the deliberate, selfish rending of relationships which ultimately drives us away from relationship with God. We propose that leadership in our churches conduct training to strengthen our abilities: to seek to understand the other sides of each story, to find in our hearts empathy where we once felt contempt, to pivot and befriend our neighbors with different viewpoints, to cooperate in civil discussion, and to learn how to best intercede in unconstructive conflict. This overture was approved by Session on December 16, 2019 and by the Presbytery on February 22, 2020.
2. AFF sponsored a workshop program in First Pres last fall to address how we can be faithful Christians in this divisive era. The program, led by Mike McGillicuddy, specifically explored how we can be ambassadors of reconciliation. This exploration discovered that many people were struggling with how to talk with family, neighbors, and friends, regarding the current political climate. Some had become alienated from their family and friends, and wanted to find ways to reconcile, or at least begin dialogues with one another.
3. AFF sponsored a program with Allen Hilton regarding polarization on January 25 and 26. All members of the Lake Forest/Lake Bluff community were invited via a mailer. About 30 people attended, with a couple attendees all the way from Chicago in very inclement weather. Several different faiths were represented. There was lively give and take throughout the morning. Everyone appeared to resonate with the challenges our current political climate presents.

Allen then preached at FPCLF on Sunday, January 26, regarding how to hold courageous conversations in this tumultuous time. He held a group discussion after the 9:00 service. Roughly 90 congregants attended. The group discussion addressed a deceptively simple question: what place does politics have in the life of a thriving church?

Questions were encouraged and addressed. Unfortunately, there was not enough time to practice “courageous” conversations or exploration of peoples’ faithful participation in government in Biblical times. AFF is addressing how these can be done in the future, if there is sufficient interest. Also, results from the survey conducted at the end of the talk will be incorporated into AFF’s next steps. Input from the congregation is always welcomed.

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it, you shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets.” Matthew 22:37-40 RSV

Buildings & Grounds: Security

The Buildings and Grounds Committee is continuing in its life-safety/risk management mission in further documenting procedures and safety plans to protect all church members and visitors. A small B&G subcommittee is developing recommendations for improving campus security and emergency responses. This planning is an extension of our recent ALICE training and Security Action Planning Team sessions now including a review of high probability incidents. The discussion now includes risk management policies and procedures for slips and falls, medical emergencies, fire drills, shelter in place (e.g., storms), and campus intruders. There will be updates as they work through this process.

Book Read Ready or Not: Preparing Our Kids to Thrive in an Uncertain and Rapidly Changing World by Madeline Levine, PhD. New York Times bestselling author explores how today's parenting and education system is failing to prepare children for their certain-to-be-uncertain futures, and how we can reverse course for lasting adaptability, resilience, health, and happiness. The book is available at the Lake Forest Bookstore. We encourage you to read and discuss it with family and friends. March Featured Mission Partner: Beacon Place

Beacon Place was established in 2012 to bring about transformational change for the Waukegan area's most needy families.

The neighborhood community center offers homework and tutoring support, as well as parent enrichment. Programs are designed to uphold participants' dignity, give people the targeted help they want and need, but also requires a commitment from participants to give back. This creates a partnership that goes beyond a hand out and becomes a true hand up. The center also recognizes that change is difficult if people are hungry so food, nutrition and health are also critical components of all programs.

For more information, visit beacon-place.org.

Souper Bowl of Caring

Last month, the high school seniors collected donations after worship for Souper Bowl of Caring, where donations go to Beacon Place, the agency the youth selected. It was a great success! Thank you for your generosity!

“Are you ready to Go and Serve?”

The Dakota Partnership 2020 Mission Trip

Join Pastor Clint and Pastor Kristie on a mission to serve Native American children and their families with the Gospel in word and action.

From June 20–26, our Pastors will join with other Presbyterians and friends across Chicagoland to journey to Sisseton, South Dakota, home of the Wahpeton Sioux People. Partnering with other churches in the Presbytery of Chicago, the YMEN of North Lawndale and a local biracial Assembly of God church along with Native American Presbyterians from the Reservation, the week will focus on a four-day VBS program serving 200+ children and daily construction projects supporting the six Dakota Presbytery churches on the Reservation itself. Motel accommodations are provided in town as well as two hot meals and a bag luncheon daily at our host church, Family Life. Both individuals and entire families may sign up to attend! See Pastor Clint for more details or visit knoxpres.org/dakotapartnership. Scholarships are available.

Mission Statement:

To enhance and enable the development of Christian values in Dakota and other Native American communities by cultivating positive and enduring relationships, developing mutual understanding, and building self-esteem. We do this through actions which restore hope, encourage healthy values, promote responsible behaviors, and enhance the worship experience.

Value Statement:

*We serve Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.
We respect Native American Spirituality and values.
We love one another as children of God.
